MARION WOMAN SENTENCED FOR FIFTH OVI

Y. Reece

Yolanda M. Reece, 40, was sentenced to 60 days in jail, three years community control, and 40 hours community service.

Reece pleaded guilty in March to operating a vehicle under the influence of alcohol or drugs – a fourth-degree felony. It was her fifth OVI offense.

In addition to the above sanctions, Ms. Reece is also required to attend drug and alcohol addiction programming, and her license is suspended for five years. She must also pay a $1400 fine.

Reece was indicted after law enforcement was alerted to a reckless driver on November 23, 2018 in the area of US 23 and N. Sandusky Street in Delaware.
