COLUMBUS MAN INDICTED ON MULTIPLE CHARGES OF RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY

A Delaware County Grand Jury returned a ten-count indictment against Harry Brice II.

The indictment comes after Westerville Police responded to a "theft in progress" call from the Polaris Parkway Meijer on September 15, 2014.

"Store employees reported a man attempting to use multiple credit cards to make gift card purchases," said Delaware County Prosecutor Carol O'Brien. "Authorities found that none of the cards swiped matched the numbers listed on the front of the cards."

Brice, 23, is charged with ten counts of receiving stolen property – all fifth-degree felonies. Each count specifies a different credit card.

An arraignment has not yet been set.
