BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT INDICTED

S. Kafoure

A Delaware County Grand Jury has returned a four-count indictment against 36-year-old Seth P. Kafoure.

On June 15, 2016 deputies responded to a robbery in progress call from First Merit Bank in Lewis Center.

“A man presented a note demanding cash to a teller,” said Delaware County Prosecutor Carol O'Brien. “The man, who received money from the employee, was caught on surveillance video.”

The indictment also includes charges related to a June 8, 2016 Huntington Bank robbery in New Albany.

Kafoure is charged with two counts of robbery – both second-degree felonies, one count of theft – a fifth-degree felony, and an additional count of theft – a first-degree misdemeanor.

Kafoure is already in prison from charges relating to the June 10, 2016 robbery of a 5/3 Bank in Warren County, Ohio.

An arraignment date in Delaware County has not yet been set.
