LARRY FOX SENTENCED ON RAPE/KIDNAPPING CHARGES

Larry Fox, 45 of Lewis Center, was sentenced to 38 years in prison.

A jury found Fox guilty on August 28, 2014 of 2 counts of rape – first-degree felonies, 3 counts of kidnapping – second-degree felonies, and abduction – a third-degree felony.

Larry Fox and his uncle, Harry Fox were indicted in October 2012 for the kidnapping and rape of another man. Harry Fox is currently serving 13 years in prison for his role in the crime.

The incident took place at the Worthington Arms Mobile Home Park after the 18-year-old victim failed to provide marijuana and was unable to return the $200 given to him for the purchase. In order to repay the debt, the victim was handcuffed and a knife was held against his throat as he was forced to perform a sex act on Larry Fox.

“No one should ever be made to go through what the victim in this case had to endure,” said Delaware County Prosecutor, Carol O’Brien. “We are pleased with the guilty verdict, the sentence, and also that Mr. Fox will be labeled a Tier III sex offender for life.”
